Funderaft Publishing

One family for over 100 years. Family-owned Fundcraft Publishing started out of a small rural print shop in the early 1900s with one goal...to work with one customer at a time and stress quality in every book published. That goal started with Marsh Bradley, later with son, David, and now with grandson, Chris, who is president of the company.

In the early 1940s, the company printed its first fundraising "cookbook" for a local church. And over the years, fundraising with cookbooks has proven to be a phenomenal success; helping churches, civic groups and more (at the national level) raise thousands of dollars.

In 1950, David Bradley joined the company, working after school and on weekends. After college, David returned to the business, which by that time was one of the leaders in cookbook publishing for churches, individuals and civic groups around the entire country. Fundcraft then purchased a large cookbook printing company, North American Press of Kansas City, which also had been in the cookbook publishing business for over 30 years.

Fundcraft started producing more than 50,000 cookbook recipes each week and working with more than 8,000 groups and businesses each year. Now, as one of the largest cookbook publishers in the U.S., Fundcraft has worked with thousands of groups and has raised millions of dollars for all types of organizations and businesses.

In 1985, Fundcraft moved from the small rural town in eastern Kansas to a new 200,000 square foot building, in West Tennessee, equipped with state-of-the-art presses and equipment to produce mass volumes of fundraising cookbooks, as well as other fundraising promotional items. By doing so in volume, Fundcraft is able to publish as inexpensively as possible, and produces a multitude of items within an extremely cost-effective and competitive range, allowing for company success as well as exceeding customer satisfaction – meeting virtually every publishing/printing need.

When son, Chris, came on board in the 90s, Fundcraft joined the vast world of the Internet, and informative and profitable websites were developed such as www.cookbooks.com, www.cookbooksonline.com, www.fundcraft.com, and www.instantpublisher.com. Cookbook printing online was born, with customers submitting to Fundcraft for unusually fast turn-around.

Fundcraft is now the leader as an online cookbook publisher with websites attracting more than 100,000 visitors each week!

Step by Step Guide

Step 1 PLANNING

Select your Cookbook Committee. Select a committee of five to six people. Look for enthusiastic, energetic team members to ensure success!

Set a fundraising goal.

Create a fundraising goal based on your list of financial needs. Use the Fundcraft Price Chart to determine the number of cookbooks needed to reach your goal.

Make a schedule.

From start to finish, decide on a "Selling Date," and mark your calendar when you'll need to submit materials to meet that deadline. Start your Fundcraft Program Checklist to keep on schedule.

Step 1 - Planning

Program Planning

Good organization is the key to any successful fundraising program. It is very important that a good committee is selected and each member be given a specific responsibility toward project completion.

Plan for Success with 8 simple steps:

- 1. Decide how much money your group wants to earn.
- 2. Decide how you want to use the profits from the cookbook sales.
- 3. Determine the number of recipes to collect and the number of books to order to reach your dollar goal.
- 4. Set a firm date for your fundraising selling drive.

time committee is beific rectific recti

5. Based on your selling date and Fundcraft's average production time of 35-50 working days to complete the printing, completion dates should be set for each phase of your project.

- 6. If your group decides to sell local merchant advertising, a group leader for advertising should be appointed.
  - 7. Set weekly meeting dates for Committee Leaders and the Chairperson to report progress. Monthly meetings stretch your project out too long and interest is lost.
    - 8. A good way to handle money collected from advance sales is to open a special bank account for your program, with two signatures required for withdrawals. This is protection for the signers of the Order Form and for your organization.

Step 2 RECIPE MANAGEMENT

Collect your recipes.

Distribute Fundcraft recipe collection forms to everyone in your organization. Collect two to three recipes from each person.

Sort your recipes

Categorize your recipes using either Fundcraft standard section titles or custom section titles. Then sort the recipes in the order you want them to appear in each section. Finally, sort the sections in the order you want them to appear in your book. Remember: Fundcraft typesets your recipes for free.

Send your recipes to Fundcraft.

Choose from any of our three recipe submission options. Fundcraft makes it easy!

• Recipe Collection Forms

Recipe Collection

Recipe collection is the most important aspect of the cookbook fundraising program. Hometown recipes are what makes personalized cookbooks the most sought after type of cookbooks in the world. Be sure to have several members of your group help get the word out that your group is seeking good recipes. By handing out recipe collection forms and setting due dates for the recipes to be turned in, you'll ensure you will have a good supply of recipes for your cookbook project.

Select your recipe collection leader...

The recipe collection leader should be the most dependable and outgoing member of the organization. Two or three other members should assist with the follow-up calls and recipe sorting. All members should help by soliciting recipes and donating recipes.

Note: Be sure to let everyone know their recipe has the chance to be chosen for the Fundcraft Hometown Recipe Contest with prizes up to $1,000 and a chance to be printed in the annual full-color, hard cover Fundcraft Hometown Recipe Collection Cookbook.

3 Ways to submit your recipes for printing

Find out how you can save money and simplify your recipe collection process!

1.) Gather your recipes, making sure they are all on the same size sheets of paper. If not, staple or

Now, you have 3 different and unique ways to produce your cookbook with Fundcraft. Select the one that is right for you and "let's get cooking with Fundcraft." tape smaller recipes to larger sheets. Sort the recipes into sections and count the total recipes in each section. Fundcraft will typeset the recipes into the chosen recipe format and post a free proof online for review if this option is chosen on the order form.

- 2.) The Short/Cut™ on CD program was designed to help groups save money by typesetting their own recipes. The Short/Cut™ program can be loaded onto one computer and recipes can be entered into the computer for a savings of $.25 per book with a maximum savings of $300! This method works best if one committee member would like to type and proof the entire book and be sure that all recipes are entered into a consistent format.
- 3.) The Short/Cut™ online program was developed to be the ultimate form of recipe collection, making the recipe collection process easier and more efficient to save you time and money. Fundcraft is the only cookbook publisher who is able to offer this unique way to publish your cookbook. Fundcraft will assign a specific web location for your cookbook project and provide you with a webID and password. This webID can then be distributed to family and friends all over the world for recipe entry, making it a simple way to collect the recipes. The chairperson has the power to pick and edit recipes for consistency and general completeness with this method.

Dispense recipe collection forms

The supply kit comes complete with recipe collection forms. If your recipe donors print legibly on these forms, it is not necessary that they be retyped. Call Fundcraft for additional forms if you need more.

Participate with a well-known cook in your community

Remember, it is the names under all of your recipes that sell books. Limit the number of recipes to two (2) or three (3) per person, unless that person is a very famous cook in your community.

Follow up on recipe donors

Keep an accurate record of everyone you send recipe collection forms to. Sort recipes into proper sections as they come in. Be sure to call if you don't receive the recipes back in 7 to 9 days.

Sort Recipes Into Sections

Set up a file folder for each recipe section. Fundcraft does not eliminate recipes, so be sure they are checked for content and correctness.

Put Count Sheets on Top of Each Recipe Section

After all recipes have been reviewed, attach the appropriate copy of the recipe count sheets to each section.

• Recipes should be written using our standard format, with the ingredients at the top, followed by the recipe instructions. Recipes may be typed or printed neatly – no cursive or long-hand. Only one recipe should be printed per page. Do not use the back of the sheet. If additional space is needed, continue the recipe on a separate sheet and staple the pages together. Each recipe allows for two lines of donor information (up to 35 characters per line) example: Jane Doe, Memphis, Tn. Additional information will be considered a recipe note.

- Additional information (i.e., "This recipe has been in my family for 100 years") is considered a recipe note. Recipe notes are available for an additional charge and must be limited to four lines maximum.
- Collecting recipes from as many members as possible will certainly ensure the success of your cookbook program. Everyone likes to see their name in print, and in turn, will purchase copies of your cookbook to send to their friends and relatives. This means more sales and profits from the program. If more than one person donates the same recipe, submit the recipe only once for your book and place both donors' names under the recipe. Only the donor name on the top line will be included in the contributors index.

The Art of Collecting Good Recipes

- Names, not recipes, sell cookbooks. Try to limit contributors to only two to three recipes each.
- Set a recipe submission deadline. If contributors aren't prompt, your program may lose steam.
- Check each recipe for errors as you sort.
- Arrange each section's recipes in the order you wish them to appear. Place each section in a separate envelope and label each one.
- Fill in the supply order card included in the Recipes For Success Information Kit to receive the Original Program Marketing and Supply Kit for ideas on the recipe collection phase.

Checking for errors

- 1) Fundcraft does not eliminate recipes. Make sure all recipes are complete.
- 2) READ EACH RECIPE FOR ERRORS.
- 3) If duplicate recipes are submitted, put each submitter's name under only one recipe. Only the top name will appear in the contributors index.
- 4) Names sell books, be sure all names are spelled correctly.

Recipe submission guildlines

DO SUBMIT

- Handwritten or typed recipes on uniform size sheets of paper (no smaller than one- half sheet of typing paper)
- Fundcraft Recipe Collection Forms
- Legible photocopies
- Recipes bundled & labeled into recipe sections
- Recipes downloaded onto a disk or online from Short/Cut™ software

DO NOT SUBMIT

- Unsorted recipes
- Illegible recipes
- Photocopies of recipe cards
- Photocopies of recipes from a copyrighted book
- Recipes from copyrighted websites
- Recipes on scraps of paper, napkins or paper towels, etc.
- Recipes cut out of newspapers
- Recipes in any language other than English

AVOID THESE COMMON MISTAKES

- 1. Duplicate Recipes Submit each recipe only once. If more than one person contributes the same recipe, you can place two names under one recipe.
  - If you have multiple contributor names, it is recommended you do not have a contributors index, as only the first name appears in the index.
- 2. Duplicate Contributor Names Be consistent in spelling your contributor's names. The recipe donor's name appears in the List of Contributors. If a donor's name is not spelled the same on every recipe they submitted, they will be listed multiple times in the index. For example, Sara Smith, Sara B. Smith, & S.B. Smith would be different listings.
- 3. Loose Recipes– Fundcraft does not accept loose recipes. Tape each loose recipe to a uniform size sheets of paper that is the same size as the rest of the recipe submissions. You can use sheets of typing paper or Recipe Collection Forms, as long as all recipes are turned in on the same size paper. Remember, only one recipe per sheet.

Fundcraft TYPES and PROOFS your recipes for FREE

Just collect the recipes, sort them into sections, place them in your desired order and Fundcraft will do the rest! After Fundcraft typesets your recipes, we will proofread them against your original copies to check for accuracy. Production time is approximately 35-50 working days if Fundcraft types your recipes. The price listed on the price chart includes free typing and proofing of your recipes.

Hard copy proof

Hard copy proofs are available for an additional charge. See price chart for more information. Please be aware that sending hard copy proofs may delay production by up to two weeks or longer. Proof copy is unbound.

Proof copy on the web

Every group is assigned a custom website at the start of their cookbook program. Once we have typed and proofread your book, a FREE proof copy will be posted to the site for five days (not business days), allowing you to print a copy of your book to check before production. We will notify the billing correspondent by e-mail when the copy is available online to check. If we receive no corrections from you within five days, the book will be published as posted on the site. During the proofing stage, Fundcraft errors will be corrected at no charge; however, any changes from the originally submitted materials are subject to an additional charge. The proof option must be marked on the order form.

Additional cover or recipe proofs are available upon request for an additional charge. See price chart page 8.

Abbreviations

The Fundcraft policy is to abbreviate measurements in the ingredients list and spell them out in the directions. If standard abbreviations have not been used, our typists will standardize them if Fundcraft types the recipes. Recommended abbreviations are:

| c. = cup    | tsp. = teaspoon | lb. = pound    | qt. = quart        |
|-------------|-----------------|----------------|--------------------|
| oz. = ounce | doz. = dozen    | pkg. = package | Tbsp. = tablespoon |

- Covers and dividers
- Sample kit

Be sure your cover is eye-catching. Since your cover is the first thing readers will see, it needs to encourage them to open your cookbook and read more.

Your cookbook cover should clearly state the name of your organization. Your group's name should be recognizable, and placing it on the cover will boost sales.

If you choose a Fundcraft cover design, take into consideration the space available on that particular design when selecting your cover wording. Some covers have more room for text than others.

You don't need to be a designer to create a beautiful, unique cover. Just submit an original photo or drawing, fill out a cover layout sheet from our supply kit with your wording and typestyle choices, and let our art department do the rest!

Once your recipes are collected, you are ready to put the finishing touches on your cookbook and really make it unique by selecting your design options. Remember, a personalized cookbook will appeal to members of your community, leading to increased sales and more profit for your group.

Fundcraft offers a tremendous variety of free features. For those groups who may be short on time or creativity, designing a cookbook can be as simple as selecting a cover and divider set, and submitting any text you would like included on your local information pages. Then just sit back and relax; in 35-50 working days, you will receive beautiful, personalized cookbooks that your whole group can be proud of.

However, your group may have more specific ideas for its cookbook design. Maybe you're interested in a custom cover, custom dividers with tabs, color photos on your local information pages, selling merchant advertising to offset the cost of production, or using different binding styles. These are just some of the custom design options we offer. Since several of our custom options are offered at no additional charge, you are truly free to express your creativity.

- Add advance sale coupons and gift certificates sold.
- Make sure to order enough cookbooks to generate enough money to meet your fundraising goal.
- Ordering extra cookbooks will allow for continued sales on the www.cookbooks.com website and to fill orders generated through local news releases.
- Remember, if you reorder, the same quantity of cookbooks will cost less than your original order; however, reorders with smaller quantities will be more expensive. It is a better value to order extra cookbooks on your initial order than to make a small second order.

Submit Your Order

- Fill out the order form completely. Your order cannot be processed without your order form completed and signed by two non-related adults.
- Determine your per-book base cost, based on your binding style, number of recipes and number of books in your order. See price chart pages 7-8.
- Mark your options on the order form and calculate the total for your order.
- If your cookbooks will not be sold for non-profit fundraising purposes, include 50% of this total as a deposit with your order. Final balance is due before shipping.
- Include everything in your order at one time, as you will be charged extra for additional recipes or other materials that are submitted after the manuscript is received. Also include any coupons. Coupons submitted after your order is received will not be honored.
- If you use Short/Cut™ Online, your completed order form must be received before your order is complete.
- Be sure to take into consideration our production time, and submit your order with plenty of time for special dates or planned events.
- Wrap and ship your package to Fundcraft and we will do the rest!

Binding Styles

Select a binding style for your cookbook. Fundcraft offers 6 different styles including our new Perfect Binding.

Plastic Comb

This binding is free and offered in 6 colors and allows for printing on the spine. Soft and hard covers can be used with this binding style.

Hard Cover

This binding is the most durable cover on the market. Your cover design is between a 1/8" thick heavy board and a sheet of lamination film making a very strong cover. The cookbook is bound with a plastic comb binder.

Three-Ring

This binding features a full 1/8" padded front and back cover. All of our covers are laminated. With the 3-ring, the front, spine and back cover can be used for printing.

Cover Lamination

Free lamination on the front and back cover is added to all Fundcraft covers for appearance and durability in the kitchen.

Comb Binder Color and Typestyles

We offer six different comb binder colors from which you may choose. Choose a typestyle marked with an asterisk for your binder imprint.

NOTE: For spine printing on the three-ring binder and perfect binding styles, any of our cover typestyles on page 37 may be used.

Three-Ring Binder Cookbook Stand

The three-ring binder option can come with an added bonus: your very own cookbook stand! This plastic easel will support your cookbook upright when you're ready to cook.

The stand comes bound, flat in the back of your three-ring binder. To use, take it out of your binder and the stand pops into place. When you're finished, it will fold flat for storage in your three-ring binder. You'll never lose it!

Plastic Comb Ink Colors:

Six colors are available for plastic comb printing...Black, white, red, blue, gold and silver are the only colors available for plastic comb spine printing.

Plastic Coil

This binding has a continuous plastic coil running through punched holes in the book. The coil comes in 4 colors and allows the cookbook to lay flat when opened.

Perfect binding This is another free binding style where the soft cover wraps around the book and is glued at the spine. Printing can be on the front and back covers and also the spine.

Ease-L-Back

This is a fresh alternative to the standard cookbook. The cookbook features a built in stand for easy, hands free use in the kitchen. Only one recipe is printed per page and the recipe type is larger on this style of binding.

Now that you have your recipes collected and ready to submit for printing, it's time to select options that will make your cookbook unique to your organization.

For a small charge, we will print the title of your cookbook and/or organization name on your comb binder. This quick reference feature will be appreciated by cooks everywhere! Remember that spine printing is included in the price of the three-ring binder and perfect binding styles.

Artwork Guidelines

We want your cookbook to look its absolute best. We also want to avoid any delays in production which may be caused by electronic files that are too low in resolution, files that cannot be opened by our art department or other problems that can come up by submitting unacceptable artwork. We have developed this list of artwork submission guidelines to help you get the best possible reproduction of your artwork and photographs. If you have questions or need any clarification of terms, please feel free to contact us.

Artwork (YES)

- DO Submit original photos (black/white or color).
- DO Submit original artwork or ink drawings.
- DO Submit files on disk at the minimum resolution of 300 dpi in TIFF, EPS, PDF or JPEG format at 100% size needed for printing.

You will achieve the highest quality by submitting original black/white or color photographs or original artwork.

Artwork (NO)

- DO NOT submit inkjet or laser printouts of photos or grayscale graphics from your computer. Submit these files on disk instead. (Exception: laser prints are preferred for black/white line art.)
- DO NOT submit photos or graphics clipped from newspapers, magazines, greeting cards, stationery, etc. They will produce poorly and may be copyrighted.
- DO NOT submit photocopies of photos or graphics.
- DO NOT submit pencil or crayon drawings.
- DO NOT use paper clips, staples or tape on your photos or artwork which can damage your originals.
- DO NOT crop your original photographs. Instead, make a photocopy of the photo, mark the copy how you would like it to be cropped and submit with the original photograph as a guide.
- DO NOT submit artwork that is disproportionate. Cover templates are available upon request.
- DO NOT submit low-resolution files on disk. Images from websites are generally not high enough resolution.
- DO NOT submit files in unsupported formats. We may not be able to open your files, resulting in a delay. We accept TIFF, EPS, PDF or JPEG (300 dpi or higher at 100% size needed for printing). If you do not see a file format here that you are able to produce, or you have specific questions about your program, please contact us.
- DO NOT submit art larger than 8.5" x 11."
- DO NOT submit negatives or transparencies.

Create your own cover

Do you have a great idea for a custom front cover? You may want to use your own design, artwork, organization logo or family portrait to make your front cover really special. With our custom cover options, the possibilities are endless! You may have an artistic member of your group who can design your cover. Some groups hold a design contest with free cookbooks as the prize. Large businesses often have their own marketing departments design their covers. You may even wish to hire a professional graphic artist.

But you don't need to be a designer to create a great custom cover. Just send us an original photograph or drawing, indicate your wording, typestyle and any special instructions on the cover layout sheet, and our art department will do the rest!

Fundcraft's custom cover options offer unparalleled quality and value. Unlike other companies, we do not charge extra for custom cover designs that bleed (extend to the edge of the page). And as an added bonus, if you select our three-ring binder or perfect binding style (shown on page 19), you are free to use the entire front, back and spine for your cover design.

We also offer optional custom back printing and custom printing on the inside covers. (See options price list on page 8.)

No matter what you envision, we have a custom cover option that will fit your needs. Browse the following pages for more ideas on what you can do with your own custom cover.

If you design your own cover, please see our artwork submission guidelines. To aid in designing your cover, use our cover layout sheet which can be downloaded from our website at www.fundcraft.com.

Cover templates can be emailed upon request.

Tabbed Dividers

A set of tabbed section dividers is one of the most sought after upgrades. Tab dividers highlight recipe sections in your cookbook. Not only are tab dividers a great way to navigate through your cookbook sections, but they also enhance the look of your cookbook.

Fundcraft offers regular dividers printed on heavy card stock and collated in your book. Tabs are always collated in the Fundcraft cookbooks and never left for the customer to insert.

Our round tabs are very popular, giving your cookbook a more modern look.

We just announced our new Recipe Page Tabbed Book. Different than any cookbook on the market today, each page in a section is die cut as a tab, making all sections very easy to locate.

The recipe page tabbed book is a full 6 x 9 cookbook and a sample is enclosed in our information kit or you can view a copy at www.fundcraft.com. Please note this book will not include recipe section dividers.

Custom tabbed dividers are also available for customer designed dividers. Tabbed dividers are available with soft and hard covers with the plastic comb binder or the 3-ring notebook.

Recipe options

Recipe Page Fillers

When the non-continued recipe option is selected, a blank space will be left at the bottom of some pages where there was not enough room to fit the entire next recipe. Fundcraft offers five sets of filler artwork and four sets of filler quotations. Each set contains 40 to 80 quotations or pieces of artwork. Art and quotation fillers cannot be mixed.

For an additonal charge, you may also choose to submit your own custom artwork or quotations. Custom fillers are a great way to add a unique touch to your cookbook. Custom art can allow every member of your group a chance to contribute to the creative aspect of your book. Custom text can be used to scatter historical information or facts throughout your cookbook. Custom art and text fillers cannot be mixed.

NOTE: Custom art fillers will be reproduced in black/white and should be line art only, no grayscale or screens. A good rule of thumb is if artwork will photocopy well, it is suitable to be used as a filler. Artwork submitted should be designed no larger than 2" high and 4" wide. We will size the art to fit the available space. Custom text fillers should be submitted typed or printed neatly. Do not submit them on the same sheets as the recipes, but on separate sheets. Fillers will be inserted as space permits in random locations throughout the cookbook and cannot be placed with specific recipes or in specific recipe sections. Submit roughly one filler for every three recipes, and while we will make every attempt to use every filler, we cannot guarantee this.

4. Dedication page.

Additional suggestions for Local Information Pages: Inspirational Poem or Story, History of Group, Church Schedule, Description of Fund Usage, In Loving Memory–special dedication page, Special Scriptures, List of Past Presidents, or Family Tree. The local information pages can contain any information you feel might help your group sell cookbooks.

Helpful Hints

Free! Helpful Cooking Hints Section

Another FREE option to enhance your cookbook is our 16-page Helpful Cooking Hints section. These pages of nutritional information will be placed at the back of your cookbook just after the recipe index.

The useful information and easy-to-read format is a great complement to the hints that appear on the backs of our divider sets, and will help your cookbook sell. Many of the hints are illustrated, depicting a number of meal preparation subjects. If you prefer, this section may be omitted by indicating on your order form.

Heavy Clear Plastic Recipe Envelope

This is a most popular and durable envelope. Made of heavy, clear plastic, this envelope will last for years of daily use storing your favorite recipes. The envelope opens next to the binding edge of the book to ensure that recipes are secure. The envelope will be bound after the Helpful Cooking Hints section.

Supplementary Inserts

Many times a group wants to add pages to their cookbook or make a statement to their customers. Fundcraft has developed four different and unique 16-page inserts that can be placed at the back of your books for a small additional charge.

The sections are information on (a) Household Hints (b) Motivational Quotes (c) Heart Healthy Hints or (d) Devotional Sayings. Each section has been professionally written and will add to your cookbook value.

If you are interested, please request a copy of the information pages or go to the download center at www.fundcraft.com and receive a free copy of the section you are interested in.

Cookbook Options

Free! Special Occasion Dedication Pages

At no additional charge, you may choose from nine special occasion dedication pages, which will be placed at the very beginning of your cookbook. Special occasion dedication pages will provide your customer with an incentive to buy several cookbooks at one time to give as gifts.

Personalized cookbooks sell very easily all year long, and you really don't need a special occasion to sell them; however, there are times when people are looking for special gift ideas. If you plan to market your cookbooks during one of these times, we can offer you a specially designed dedication page appropriate to the occasion.

Be sure to make note of the normal production time for each special date in order to receive your books in time. The page can be easily removed if there are any books remaining after the special date.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Shouldn't we give our cookbook order to a local printer?

A. Local printers do a fine job; however, many of them refer orders to Fundcraft. Due to our volume, it is not likely that a local printer could come close to our prices.

Q. Can small groups have a successful cookbook fundraising drive?

A. Yes! Most of our success stories are from small organizations. A minimum of 10 members can complete the program successfully.

Q. Can individuals and small businesses publish a cookbook for profit?

A. Yes! The program is the same as with fundraising groups except for the payment terms, requiring 1/2 payment with the order and the balance when the books are ready.

Q. How does a 10% overrun/underrun affect our cookbook order?

A. Your cookbook travels through many stages in our printing process. During production, some books may be damaged. We add 10% more than what is ordered to cover books damaged through production. Out of the 10%, we ship 3% in Free Freight Books. If books are damaged, we may ship less than a full order. You are only billed for those books you receive.

Q. Can we change the title on Fundcraft cover designs?

A. Many of our cover designs can have the title changed. Under each design is an explanation of what can be changed.

Q. Do recipes have to be typed?

A. No. Clear handprinted recipes are acceptable.

Q. Do you count icings for cakes as another recipe?

A. No. If the icing goes with the cake, it is counted as only one recipe.

Q. Can I put my logo on a Fundcraft cover?

A. Yes. This makes your cover a custom cover.

Q. Can we print recipes from newspapers and other cookbooks?

A. Yes. You can use recipes from various sources. There are a few recipes that have the title trademarked or copyrighted and cannot be used, such as Kentucky Silk Pie, Derby Pie, and Runza, to name a few. You cannot use complete works from any cookbook due to copyright laws.

Q. Can we use art and drawings from other sources for our cookbook?

A. Artwork from books and greeting cards is usually copyrighted. It is better to use Fundcraft art or have a local high school art instructor or other local artist design a custom front cover.

Q. Do we have to use Fundcraft's recipe collection forms?

A. No. We supply the recipe collection forms free if you request them; however, you can collect the recipes on plain paper the size of the recipe collection forms or larger. We do ask that they be submitted in the same format as our collection forms and only one recipe per page, and all uniform size pieces of paper.

Q. Do some civic organizations require royalty payments for the use of their logo?

A. Yes. In some cases civic organizations charge a royalty for local chapters to use their logo. If this is the case, you, as the cookbook sponsoring group, are responsible for any royalty payment or release form from the group headquarters.

Q. Can we order fewer than 100 cookbooks?

A. No. The minimum order for Fundcraft's Original Cookbook Program is 100 books. However, you can order as few as 25 cookbooks with InstantPublisher.com.

Terms and Policies

1.800.853.1363

Fundcraft takes pride in the fact that fundraising groups can complete the Original Cookbook Program with no down payment, receive prepaid shipping and enjoy up to 67 days interest free to pay the balance after the cookbooks are shipped.

PAYMENT TERMS

Fundcraft gives every fundraising group time to sell their books before paying. There is no prepayment of any kind for organizations with approved credit. Your first payment of 50% of the total is due 37 days after the books are shipped, with the balance due 67 days from shipment. With written request, your group can have the balance due date extended 30 days with no interest.

We also publish many cookbooks for individuals, families and businesses who sell the books for profit. The payment terms for individuals, families and businesses are different than for fundraising groups or organizations. Individual payment terms are 50% of the total when submitting the order. Once the order has been printed, we will send the final invoice for the balance of the order, which must be paid before the order can be shipped.

PRODUCTION TIME

The key to any successful fundraising community cookbook program is planning. Normal production time is approximately 25 to 30 working days with our standard Short/Cut™ program. Time will be extended if Fundcraft types and proofs your recipes. Shipping time is usually two to five business days, depending upon how far you are from our plant in Tennessee. We do try to meet all requested delivery dates if possible. Fundcraft works with thousands of groups, and we try to treat every group equally when it comes to shipping time. If we do have an opening in production, we try to fill the slot with a group that has requested an early ship date. We do offer a rush service for an additional charge.

OVERRUNS AND UNDERRUNS

The number of books you receive may not be the exact number you ordered due to our overrun/underrun policy. All orders are subject to a 10% overrun/underrun. This is a standard practice in the printing industry, due to an estimated 10% spoilage which may occur at different phases of production. You will only be billed for the number of books you receive, which may be up to 10% more or less than the number ordered. Regardless of over or underrun, we always include 3% of the total books at no charge to help defray freight. See shipping information.

If more than 10% was lost in spoilage, your order may be short books (underrun).

If less than 10% was lost in spoilage, your order may contain a maximum of 10% extra books (overrun). If there is an overrun of your books, you will only be billed for those books shipped, with a maximum of 10% less the 3% freight books.

SHIPPING

Free cookbooks are shipped with every order to help defray freight costs. Fundcraft is unique in that for over two decades we have added 3% in free books to defray freight expense when the books are sold. Depending on the amount you sell your free freight books for, your group may actually make money on them. Fedex Ground or UPS charges are added to the customer billing. Fundcraft does not guarantee that the 3% free books will cover the total freight expense; however in many cases, the money generated from selling the free books will more than pay for the freight.

• In cases where the order is very large or especially heavy, such as a three-ring notebook, commercial trucks are used to save costs to the customer.

- Commercial truck lines charge extra for inside delivery and unloading of boxes. This charge is the responsibility of the customer and is added to the final billing.
- Orders shipped out of the U.S. must be prepaid for both the books and the freight.
  - Overseas orders are shipped by U.S. Postal Service Media Mail and usually take four to six weeks for delivery.
  - All orders require a street address and cannot be shipped to a post office box.
  - As soon as the order is received, you should inspect every box. All damage is the responsibility of the freight carrier and should be reported to Fundcraft immediately. Please make sure to keep the damaged books and the box they are received in as FedEx and UPS sometimes pick up the books and box before they make claim payment.
  - All commercial carriers give priority delivery service to a business address; so if possible, you may want to give a place of business for the actual delivery point of the cookbooks.

REPRINTS

More than half of Fundcraft customers order one or more reprint orders of their cookbook due to high demand in sales. Many groups reorder a supply of their cookbooks year after year as an easy way to replenish their treasury. Fundcraft will keep the printing files for at least five years after the last printing.

Reprint quotations for most orders can be obtained from our website, www.fundcraft.com. Just enter the Fundcraft secure webID and password for your group. There is a 100 book minimum on most orders depending on the book options. Fundcraft is proud to help every group with their reprint orders. Ordering is easy and production is fast.

Reprints average 10 to  $15\phi$  per book less than your first order for the same number of cookbooks. However, if the quantity of the reorder is less than the first order, the price will increase due to the smaller number requested. All reorder quotations are based on our current price chart.
